

Valley View Rotary Update
Wednesday Oct. 1, 2008

Program: Kurt Save, visiting from La Crosse's sister city in Norway.

Announcements:

Torchlight Parade Tonight: Join your fellow Rotarians in the Torchlight Parade tonight! Jill Blokhuis, Sue Dillenbeck, Dick Spencer, Doug Bruha, Larry Clark, Terry Bauer, Chris Leach, Larry Peterson, members from Onalaska's club and I will be there!

We need to lineup at 6 p.m. in section #2, position #13. That is located on Charles St. between Gohres St. and Rublee St. We will have candy and glow sticks for you.

Kringles: Orders are due at next week's meeting! The sheet for your final totals is attached. If you can bring it filled out to next week's meeting, that would be great!

Pick up dates are Monday, Oct. 27 & Tuesday, Oct. 28 at Linda's Bakery.

Membership: Nick Benz with State Bank has submitted his application to join the club! His first reading was this week and the board will vote on his application on 10/13. Make sure you take a minute to introduce yourself to him.

Takedown: Thanks to Russ Callahan who had our flag cleaned and cases made to protect the flag and the banner!

Rotary Lights Fun Run/Walk: The Rotary Lights Fun Run/Walk is scheduled for 12/14. A brochure is attached if you'd like more information about participating.

TV/VCR & DVD player: Now that the club owns an LCD projector, we no longer need to keep the TV/VCR or DVD player. If you would like the TV/VCR and cabinet or the DVD player email me your name and we'll draw a name at next week's meeting. There will be one drawing for the TV/VCR and one for the DVD player.

Quarterly Bills: Dick Spencer emailed everyone their quarterly bill. If you did not receive it, please contact him.

New Horizons Work Day 10/19: Sue Dillenbeck will be coordinating another work day at New Horizons on Sunday, 10/19. Please mark your calendars and stay tuned for details.

Next Week's Program: Darryle Clott-Lessons of the Holocaust.
