

Announcements:Membership:

We had the first reading for a new member, Pamela Maas, who was proposed by Jill Blokhuis. Pam is the Chief Business Development and Marketing Officer at Gundersen Lutheran. Please make a point of introducing yourself to Pam at upcoming meetings and thank Jill for her recruiting efforts!

Community Service:

Matt Brantner, a guest of Sue Dillenbeck, joined us again. He announced that Myrick Park is hiring six youth to work over the summer. If you would like more information, or know of anyone that may be interested, contact Sue Dillenbeck at sdillenbeck@robertryan.com. She can also provide Matt's contact information.

2009-2010 Programs:

Please look in the back of the new directory to see if you have been assigned programs and mark your calendars. Natalie Hartigan has also emailed each of you requesting your presence after the regular Club meeting next week, July 8th, to discuss programming, help coordinate and share some ideas and the guidelines given by Rotary International. The meeting should last approximately 20 minutes. Please plan to attend. For those of you not lucky enough to have this opportunity take note of who is in charge of programs and if you think of ideas pass them on.

District 6250 Information:

To find out more about area Rotary events and what the Incoming District Governor, Dean Dickinsen has planned, visit the District 6250 website at <http://www.rotary6250.org>. Just a few items of note in the monthly newsletters and other parts of the site is information about ; Matching Grants, Group Study and Friendship Exchanges, Ambassadorial Scholarships, Foundation Grants and links to other area club sites and Rotary International. You past presidents out there could even find nomination information for the District Governor Elect Position which is still open! Keli – if you are afraid of being bored this year here is your opportunity!

Loggers Game:

Thank you to our newest Paul Harris Fellow, Sue Weidemann, for organizing our annual Loggers Game night! I had a good time and I think I can speak for the others who attended that they enjoyed it as well. A good night to watch baseball, good food, beverages and a good game – thanks Sue!

Fly-in Breakfast:

Becky Brockman is looking for ideas and volunteers to help put together some Rotary information, signs, possible slide show and/or video material for this event. If you're interested or able to contribute something to this endeavor, contact Becky at BecBrock@aol.com. Also, keep selling tickets to help make this event a success!
