Rotary Avenue of Service Awards
2013 Nomination form

Five Avenues of Service Awards (one in each category) are presented annually to club projects that best exemplify Rotary ideals in the five avenues of service. A club may nominate more than one project. Please complete a separate form for each nomination. Please note that the award is presented for individual projects (not the culmination of all of the projects completed by a club). Selection criteria are below.

NOMINATION DEADLINE is Friday, July 12, 2013. In order to be fair to all clubs, the nomination committee will not accept late nominations. Club Presidents will receive an email receipt for each nomination to avoid lost nominations.

CHECK ONE:

☐ Club Service
- for efforts supporting the internal functioning of the club enhancing the club’s health and vigor. Typical activities are those that benefit the club’s fund raising, attendance, membership growth, membership retention and/or public relations.

☐ Community Service
- for efforts improving the quality of life in the community, especially in the areas of community development, human development, environmental preservation, and partnerships.

☐ International Service
- for advancing understanding and goodwill among people of different nations. Typical activities support special international events, youth exchange, educational/cultural activities, the Rotary Foundation, and/or World Community Service.

☐ Vocational Service
- for adhering to and promoting high ethical standards in occupations, recognizing the value of all occupations, and/or contributing members’ vocational talents to solve societal problems.

☐ New Generations
- for promoting positive change implemented by youth and young adults involved in leadership development activities, community and international service projects, and exchange programs that enrich and foster world peace and cultural understanding.

Nominee’s Club:                  Project Name:

Project Timeline:

Key people involved with the project:

Project Description:

SUBMIT FORM TO: Brad Quarberg, bquarberg@gmail.com or fax 608.785.8492